Luke 21:34-36—“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Staff titled “Was It Something I Said? [Democrats May Not Be Changing Their Policies, but They Will Try Changing How They Say Their Policies to Help People Fight the Trump Agenda]” was posted at thirdway.org on Aug. 22, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

Democrats and their allies use an awful lot of words and phrases no ordinary person would ever dream of saying.

- The intent of this language is to include, broaden, empathize, accept and embrace.
- The effect = sound like the extreme, divisive, elitist, obfuscatory, enforcers of wokeness.

Therapy-Speak

These words say: “I’m more empathetic than you, and you are callous to hurting other’s feelings.”

- |  |                     |
|--|---------------------|
| • Privilege                            | • Progressive stack |
| • “Environmental violence”             | • Centering         |
| • Dialoguing                           | • Safe space        |
| • Othering                             | • Holding space     |
| • Triggering                           | • Body shaming      |
| • Microaggression/assault/invalidation |                     |

Seminar Room Language

These words say: “I’m smarter and more concerned about important issues than you. Your kitchen table concerns are small.”

When we use words people don’t understand, studies show that the part of their brain that signals distrust becomes more active, undermining our ability to reach them.

- Subverting norms
- Systems of oppression
- Critical theory
- Cultural appropriation
- Postmodernism
- Overton Window
- Heuristic
- Existential threat to ..... climate, the planet, democracy, the economy

Organizer Jargon

These words say: “We are beholden to groups, not individuals. People have no agency.”

Democrats can fight for the poor, the hungry, the homeless and immigrants more effectively if they speak in everyday language and in the language of those most affected by these issues.

- Radical transparency
- Small “d” democracy
- Barriers to participation
- Stakeholders
- The unhoused
- Food insecurity
- Housing insecurity
- Person who immigrated

Gender/Orientation Correctness

These phrases say: “Your views on traditional genders and gender roles are at best quaint.”

Standing up to MAGA’s cruel attacks on gay and transgender people requires creating empathy and building a broad coalition – not confusing or shaming people who could otherwise be allies.

- Birthing person
- Inseminated person
- Pregnant people
- Chest feeding
- Cisgender
- Deadnaming
- Heteronormative
- Patriarchy
- LGBTQIA+

The Shifting Language of Racial Constructs

These words signal that talking about race is even more of minefield. You will be called out as racist if you do not use the latest and correct terminology.

As we fight racism and discrimination, we should reflect upon whether the words we are using are part of the reason Democrats are losing support from all non-White voter groups. We must know when to take a step back and listen – instead of peppering our websites, fundraising asks, and newsletters with sociology buzzwords.

- Latinx
- BIPOC
- Allyship
- Intersectionality
- Minoritized communities

Explaining Away Crime

This says: “The criminal is the victim. The victim is an afterthought.”

People deserve to feel safe where they live, work and go to school – and we can’t defend the progress we’ve made on criminal justice reform (or hope to make more) unless we acknowledge that reality in plain terms.

- Justice-involved
- Carceration
- Incarcerated people
- Involuntary confinement

Conclusion

Some will take issue with the inclusion of words or phrases we ask Democrats to avoid when talking to the public. (We have used some of these phrases in our own writings in the past.)

Think about conversations with persuadable voters in your own life (friends, family and co-workers) and consider whether the use of the language above would help or hurt your case. Recognize that much of the language above is a red flag for a sizable segment of the American public. It is not because they are bigots, but because they fear cancellation. Or they simply don’t understand what these terms mean and become distrustful of those who use them. So instead, they keep quiet. They don’t join the conversation, they leave it.

We will never abandon our values or stop doing things to protect those who need help.

But as the catastrophe of Trump 2.0 has shown, the most important thing we can do for these people (and causes) is to build a bigger army to fight them – Communicating in authentic ways that welcome rather than drive voters away would be a good start.

A business announcement provided by Business Wire titled “Statement From Marcus Lemonis, Executive Chairman of Bed, Bath & Beyond” was posted at morningstar.com on Aug. 20, 2025.

Beyond, Inc. (NYSE:BYON) has issued the following statement from Marcus Lemonis, Executive Chairman of Bed Bath & Beyond:

We will not open or operate retail stores in California.

This decision isn't about politics – it's about reality. California has created one of the most overregulated, expensive, and risky environments for businesses in America. It's a system that makes it harder to employ people, harder to keep doors open, and harder to deliver value to customers.

The result?

- Higher taxes
- Higher fees
- Higher wages that many businesses simply cannot sustain
- Endless regulations that strangle growth

Even when the state announces a budget surplus, it's built on the backs of ordinary citizens who are paying too much and businesses who are squeezed until they break.

At Bed Bath & Beyond, our responsibility is to our customers and our shareholders. We will not participate in a system that undermines both. Instead, we are investing in a California strategy that works: 24-48 hour delivery, and in many cases, same-day service. Californians will continue to get the products they love through BedBathBeyond.com – but without the inflated costs created by an unsustainable model.

We're taking a stand because it's time for common sense.

- Businesses deserve the chance to succeed.
- Employees deserve jobs that last.
- And customers deserve fair prices.

California's system delivers the opposite. That's why Bed Bath & Beyond will serve California customers directly through BedBathBeyond.com, on our terms, and with their best interests at heart.

Isaiah 55:6-11–“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
