But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take you stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

An article by Calvin Freiburger titled “Three ‘Significant’ Pro-Life Laws Go Into Effect in Texas” was posted at lifesitenews.com on Sept. 1, 2023. Following are excerpts of the article.

- Law SB 412 forbids academic institutions from restricting the academic options of a student on the basis of being pregnant or parenting and requires them to make “reasonable accommodations” for a student to care of her child.
- Law SB459 gives pregnant or parenting students priority status for early class registration.
- A previous law identified that a hospital was only obligated to give 10 days of care under certain circumstances. Law HB 3162 extends the period of care from 10 days to 25 days, bans hospitals from ending care based on “quality of life” determinations or unrelated disabilities, requires hospitals to perform certain procedures if needed to transfer them to other facilities (and does not begin the 25-day countdown until those procedures are done) allows patient surrogates to revoke physician-issued do-not-resuscitate orders, and prohibits hospitals from removing life support from anyone who is not “declared incompetent” or “mentally or physically incapable of communication.”

Texas is one of the 15 states that currently ban all or most abortions, with available data so far indicating those states could effectively wipe out an estimated 200,000 abortions a year. In response, abortion allies pursue a variety of tactics to preserve abortion “access.”

- Easy access to abortion bills.
- Legal protection and financial support of interstate abortion travel.
- Attempting to enshrine abortion “rights” in state constitutions.
- Constructing new abortion facilities near borders of pro-life neighbor states.
- Making liberal states sanctuaries for those traveling from pro-life states.

Isaiah 55:6-11–“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
