Luke 21:34-36—“But take heed to yourselves, lest your souls be weighed down with self-indulgence, and drunkenness, or the anxieties of this life, and that day come on you suddenly, like a falling trap; for it will come on all dwellers on the face of the whole earth. But beware of slumbering; and every moment pray that you may be fully strengthened to escape from all these coming evils, and to take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man” (Weymouth New Testament).

Looking back to March 2025, an article by Emma Colton titled “Number of Injunctions Halting Trump Policies Trounces Predecessors by Double” was posted at foxnews.com on March 17, 2025. Following are excerpts of the article.

Nationwide injunctions ordered against the first Trump administration account for more than half of the total injunctions ordered against the federal government since 1963 – data show.

Nationwide injunctions are court orders that prevent the federal government from implementing a policy or law that has a cascading effect impacting the entire country, not just the parties involved in the court case.

- Trump’s first administration faced 64 injunctions – out of the total 127 nationwide injunctions issued since 1963.
- There were 32 injunctions issued against the Bush, Obama and Biden administrations collectively since 2001 – meaning the first Trump administration was on the receiving end of double the amount of nationwide injunctions than his two predecessors and successor combined (according to the April 2024 edition of the Harvard Law Review).
- There were six injunctions issued against the Bush administration.
- There were 12 injunctions issued against the Obama administration.
- There were 14 injunctions issued against the Biden administration.
- Trump’s return to the Oval Office in January has brought with it more Than 120 lawsuits from activists, government employees and other targeting his executive orders and actions.

An article by Charles Creitz titled “Senator [Charles Grassley] Warns of ‘Unconstitutional’ Judicial Overreach Ahead of SCOTUS Showdown” was posted at foxnews.com on May 5, 2025. Following is the article.

Senator Chuck Grassley, R-Iowa, joins America Reports to discuss his bill to curb judicial injunctions following a series of legal battles facing the Trump administration.

Senator Grassley told Fox News Digital this week that he remains confident there will be a sunset to the trend of nationwide injunctions by federal judges whose rulings reverberate far beyond their judicial districts.

“Universal injunctions are an unconstitutional abuse of judicial power,” Grassley, chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, told Fox News Digital.

“Just this past week, a D.C. district judge issued a universal injunction blocking the president’s executive order requiring voter ID or proof of citizenship prior to voting in national elections.”

That ruling ignores the idea that “judges are not policymakers,” he said.

“Allowing them so assume this role is very dangerous.”

With the Supreme Court primed to hear a case on May 15 regarding nationwide injunctions on President Donald Trump’s order reinterpreting birthright citizenship, Grassley noted the high bench “could and should take action.”

“In the meantime, I’m continuing to work with my colleagues to advance my critical Judicial Relief Clarification Act (JRCA) and put an end to universal injunctions,” he said.

While some proponents had suggested using the reconciliation process to force through Grassley’s bill in a closely divided Senate, that would be prohibited because of the so-called Byrd Rule barring nonfinancial bills from going through the process, according to a person familiar with the reconciliation process.

The May 15 case challenges precedent from the 1898 ruling in U.S. vs. Wong Kim Ark—which defined birthright citizenship in a broad context after Wong, a child of Chinese immigrants, was denied entry to San Francisco after returning from China.

Judges in Massachusetts, Maryland and Washington state issued nationwide injunctions blocking Trump’s birthright citizenship order, while the president defended his move, saying the 14th Amendment section outlining the idea was clearly directed at former slaves.

In March, Grassley first spoke against what he called the promotion of unchecked judicial power after Senate minority whip Richard Durbin, D-Ill., requested passage of a resolution ordering Trump to comply with all federal court rulings.

Grassley responded: “The President of the United States shouldn’t have to ask permission from more than 600 different district judges to manage the executive branch he was elected to lead,” Grassley responded. I happen to agree with some Democrats that in previous years have said some judges have gone way beyond what a judge should do on national injunctions. I hope to find a solution for that, and I hope that you and I could work on that together.”

Sadly, Dennis Prager’s teaching is correct. He could even consider a corollary.

U.S. Senator John Fetterman is, tragically, seeing that unfold in a deeply personal way. In the past week, there have been a series of orchestrated columns with allegations from “former staff,” “people familiar with his office” and “former campaign aides stating (or whispering behind the curtain) that Fetterman is not himself. He’s irritable, stand-off-ish, belligerent, emotional, and stoic. That he doesn’t attend his committee meetings.

These were allegations that weren’t made in 2024 or even a month ago. They appeared spontaneously across digital, television, and print media – especially on the left.

You don’t have to be Columbo to uncover what’s going on here. This isn’t a coincidence. It’s not because it has been a slow news week in Washington or even in Pennsylvania.

And yet, this has been a prevailing topic among legacy media outlets.

There’s an audaciously clear power play taking place right before our eyes.

In May 2022, while campaigning for the U.S. Senate, as Pennsylvania’s Lt. Governor, Fetterman suffered a stroke. Throughout the remainder of that election cycle, Democratic politicians, campaign staff, and media surrogates told Pennsylvanians that Fetterman was fine. They told us in tweets, on radio, TV – and they pronounced it with anger at rallies.

In fact, his loudest, most passionate defenders went so far as to suggest that anyone questioning his mental health or stamina was not only wrong, but mean, cruel, and insensitive. One's health (especially one's mental health) is to never be a campaign issue.

Now, these people express “concerns” about his health. They suggest he isn't up to the job or that he's lacking stamina. Or they suggest that he's either too emotional or too stoic. And therefore this is supposed to show us that his mental health is damaged. He's skipping some Senate hearings, so apparently this shows he's not up to the job.

This doesn't have anything to do with his health.

- The left and their contemptuous allies are attacking him because they thought he was a progressive. Now, they are furious that he's not singing from their religious songbook.
- He voted for a few Trump nominees.
- He had dinner with his fellow Pennsylvania U.S. Senator (Dave McCormick).
- And his most grievous sin – He's the most outspoken, unapologetic Democratic defender of Israel and Jewish-Americans.

So having been criticized, and having not kowtowed to the DC Democrats, Fetterman is being taught a lesson – to scare him into “good behavior” or humiliate him so that he resigns.

Realize, too, that the same politicians, insiders, and media that once defended and are now attacking him are the very same crowd – the very same – that did this to Biden, and all of us. They needed Biden to win in 2020. They built a team to govern around him. Then they threw him aside.

Worse, they came forward in 2025 to admit that Biden probably did have issues. And, yes, we were all misled.

Now this same immoral, dishonest, contemptuous crowd dares to do it again.

The left is trying to teach Fetterman and Democratic politicians a dangerous, dastardly lesson. All voters should be watching and learning.

Isaiah 55:6-11–“Seek you the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near.

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon. ‘For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways,’ says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word by that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.”
